West Middlesex Community Area Pool: Our community pool is entering an exciting new chapter this season! As we prepare for a June opening, residents will notice several updates, including a new name, new management, and some fresh faces helping to run daily operations. At this time, final details such as extended hours, programming, and membership information are still being finalized. We appreciate the community's patience as these plans come together, and we look forward to sharing more specifics soon. We're excited to welcome everyone back for a fun and refreshing summer. Stay tuned for additional updates in the coming weeks! We're also pleased to share that WM Borough residents, as well as residents of Lackawannock Township, will be eligible for a discounted admission rate. Resident discount cards will soon be available for pick up at your local municipal office and will provide reduced pricing for pool entry throughout the season. Remember to follow the official West Middlesex Community Area Pool on Facebook for more updates!
